

Indiana state law requires us to inform you it is your responsibility to pay the provider's charge in full, and you should use this payment to pay the provider if you have not already done so. Failure to pay the provider violates the law and may result in collection proceedings or criminal penalties.