

Darla Wilton Joins Ameritas Investment Corp.

July 3, 2013//Lincoln, Neb.//Darla Wilton recently joined Ameritas Investment Corp. (AIC) as vice president and chief administrative officer in the Lincoln office. In this position, she will lead the strategy, technology, products and services that drive AIC's advisor business and organizational growth.

Wilton brings to the company extensive experience and knowledge of the broker dealer and RIA (registered investment advisor) business. Previously she served as director and senior business consultant for Blackrock; senior vice president and director – advisor services for Williams Financial Group; vice president – field development and broker dealer operations for AIG Retirement; and vice president and branch manager for Schwab & Co., Inc.

Wilton attended Our Lady of the Lake University, Houston, Texas, and earned her Executive MBA, Leadership and Executive Management degree from the University of Texas, San Antonio, Texas. She holds the Series 4, 7, 8, 24, 53 and 63 securities licenses.

Securities offered through Ameritas Investment Corp. Member FINRA/SIPC.