

Ameritas Associates Successfully Complete Leadership Academy

Lincoln, Neb. // September 11, 2014 // JoAnn Martin, Ameritas president and chief executive officer, announced the following associates successfully completed the first Ameritas Leadership Academy class:

- From the Lincoln office were Linda Whitmire, John Thompson, Jon Weinberg, Bob Gevelinger, Kelly Wieseler, April Rimpley, Sherri Wimes, Kent Mattson, Bob Jurgensmeier, David Williams and Janet Gallo
- From the Ameritas office in Cincinnati, Ohio, were Chris Lutz, Andrew Van Erp, Chris Keffalos, Cheryl Heilman, Mike Slattery, David Voelker and Jeff Pytlinski
- From Ameritas and Calvert offices in Bethesda, Md., were Ivy Duke, Bob Enderson and Alison Smith

“At Ameritas, developing future leaders and investing in our associates are among our highest priorities as we grow our company and help more and more customers,” commented Martin.

The Ameritas Leadership Academy is designed for associates who have demonstrated leadership qualities and interest in helping build a highly successful, dynamic organization. Through four, multiple day sessions over a twelve month period, it offers opportunities to develop specific leadership skills, learn about the insurance and financial services businesses that make up the Ameritas organization, network with peers and learn through interactive experiences to develop one’s leadership potential.

The second class of the Ameritas Leadership Academy is now beginning with representatives from all areas of the company and across multiple locations.
