

Wilson joins Ameritas as vice president of retirement plans

Lincoln, Neb., (Dec. 12, 2018) – Ameritas Chief Executive Officer JoAnn Martin announced today Forrest Wilson joined the retirement plans division of Ameritas.

In this role, Wilson will be responsible for leading sales and distribution for the division.

“Forrest will help the Ameritas retirement plans division achieve fast growth with an eye toward enhancing the client, advisor and third-party administrator experience,” said Jim Kais, Ameritas senior vice president – retirement plans. “His experience building teams, developing products and fostering an inclusive culture of success will be a great asset.”

Wilson has worked in nearly all aspects of the retirement plans business over the past 25 years. His experience includes service, operations, sales and management on both the platform and investment sides of the business.

Wilson earned a B.S. degree in marketing from Central Connecticut State University, New Britain, Conn., and an M.B.A. degree in finance and marketing from New York University’s Stern School of Business, New York, N.Y. He holds the FINRA Series 7, 24 and 63 securities licenses.
