

Ameritas donates to American Red Cross flood relief

Lincoln, Neb., (March 22, 2019) – Ameritas today announced a $25,000 donation to the American Red Cross of Nebraska and Southwest Iowa to support flood relief in Nebraska and the surrounding region.

“Our hearts go out to everyone whose families, homes and communities were affected by these historic floods,” said JoAnn Martin, chief executive officer of Ameritas Mutual Holding Company.

Ameritas also announced it will match voluntary associate donations to the Red Cross, up to an additional total of $25,000.

“The destruction the flooding has caused has been painful to watch,” said Jill Orton, Red Cross regional executive. “Seeing how our community has stepped up to support our citizens in need is heartwarming. The American Red Cross is grateful for this generous donation from Ameritas.”
